

Summer Reading INFORMATION & BOOKLISTS

Fairfax County Public Schools highly encourages students to read over the summer. The information listed below is not required, but many students and parents have requested some book lists and recommendations.

Online Resources

Langley High School Library	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A comprehensive website that contains: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Book recommendations, book challenges, staff pics, and links book retailers & FCPL
What to Read Next	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Curated by FCPS Middle School Language Arts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Offers a variety of fiction and nonfiction texts, video book talks, & recommendations
Modern Civil Rights Movement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Titles feature main characters of color and timely themes relating to the Black Lives Matter movement
Virginia Young Readers Choice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sponsored by Virginia State Reading Association, students can access titles from this year and previous years
Book Riot for #Middle Grade	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Book Challenges grouped thematically for middle school readers – books with happy endings, books for animal lovers, books for graphic novel lovers, etc.

Cooper Staff ♥ SUMMER BOOK CLUB TITLES ♥

Not sure if a book is appropriate for you? You or a parent can search the book title at this site to learn about some of the content in the novel. Be advised that even if you can read/comprehend books from the high school level, themes and language may be too mature for your age.